Q1) A-Read this text carefully .

Smoking is considered to be dangerous to the health, it is especially difficult for children. Our tobacconist, Mr. Kamal, has always been careful about this. If his customers are very young, he always asks them whom the cigarettes are for. One day, a little girl walked boldly into his shop and demanded twenty cigarettes. She had the exact amount of money in her hand and seemed very sure of herself. Mr. Kamal was so surprised by her confident manner that he forgot to ask his usual question. Instead, he asked her what kind of cigarettes she wanted. The girl replied promptly and handed him the money. Q1) A) Read this text carefully . Then answer (five) of the questions that follow : (10 M)

As Anna and Emily were on their way to visit some friends , their car broke down. Anna, like many people, knew nothing about cars. Luckily, there was a garage not far away from the spot and with the help of some people the car was brought there. Soon the mechanic came and without noticing the engine he claimed that the matter was serious and they had to leave the car there for it needed a full day's work. The mechanic had certainly discovered that his visitors knew nothing about cars. Emily suggested that he should at least look at the engine for it might need some fitting. The mechanic opened the bonnet and again insisted that it was serious. Then he turned to his workshop waiting for their decision. Reading Comprehension (20 Marks)

Q1) A) Read this text carefully then answer (5) of the questions that follow:

(10 M)

At last firemen have put out a big forest fire. Since then, they have been trying to find out how the fire began. Forest fires are often caused by broken glass or by cigarette ends which people carelessly throw a way. Yesterday the firemen examined the ground carefully, but were not able to find any broken glass. They were also quite sure that a cigarette end did not start the fire. This morning, however, a fireman accidentally discovered the cause. He noticed the remains of a snake which was wound round the electric wires. In this way, he was able to solve the mystery. The explanation was simple but very unusual. A bird had snatched up the snake from the ground and then dropped it on to the wires. The snake then wound itself round the wires. When it did so, it sent sparks down to the ground and these immediately started a fire.

Reading Comprehension: (20 Marks)

Q.1/ A. Read the following text carefully then answer (5) of the following questions. (10 M.)

Water is the most important liquid on Earth. We can't live without it. Without water we will die of thirst. Three - quarters of our planet is covered by water. Most is in oceans, seas and rivers. Some is frozen and forms ice caps at the North and south poles. Water goes round and round in a process called the water cycle. Clouds in the sky contain water as a gas - water vapour. This gas becomes liquid and falls to Earth as rain or snow. The rain brings water to seas, rivers and lakes. Water also goes into the soil and it is taken up by plants. Like all animals, you need water to stay alive. Your body loses water when you breathe or sweat. You can go for many weeks without food, but if you go for three or four days without water, you could die. Plants, too, need water to live. It is therefore necessary that we make use of our water carefully. We must try not to pollute the water sources in the world. Q 1. A. Read the following text carefully then answer (5) of the following questions. (10 M.)

Mr. Brown used to travel by train and always liked more comfort. So, when he got into a train, he used to put his suitcase on the seat beside him and pretend it belonged to another passenger who had gone to buy something. One day he did this when the train was very crowded. Other passengers came and sat on the other seats, except the one that his suitcase was lying on. Then, an old man arrived, looked at Mr. Brown's suitcase and said " Is this somebody's seat? " " yes " , answered Mr. Brown. " A friend of mine is travelling with me, and he has gone to buy a newspaper. He will return soon." Mr. Brown opened the window and looked out to make the old man think that he was anxious about his friend. " All right " , said the old man. " I will sit here until your friend comes back, and then I'll stand somewhere. " Mr. Brown could say nothing and all the other passengers were watching and listening. Several minutes passed, the whistle blew, and the train began to move. Mr. Brown's friend didn't come back. The old man jumped and said, "I'm sorry, your friend seems to have missed the train. Reading Comprehension: (20 Marks)

Some plays are so successful that they run for years on end. A famous actor was once cast in the role of an aristocrat who had been imprisoned for twenty years. In the last act, a jailer would always come on to the stage with a letter which he would hand it to the aristocrat. The aristocrat always insisted that the letter should be written out in full. One night the jailer decided to play a joke on his colleague to find out if he had managed to learn the content of the letter by heart. The curtain went up on the final act of the play. The aristocrat was sitting alone behind bars in his dark cell. The jailer appeared with the letter and handed it to the aristocrat. But the copy he gave him had not been written out as usual. The letter was simply a blank sheet of paper. The jailer looked on eagerly to see if his fellow actor had at last learned his lines. The aristocrat said " The light is dim. Read the letter to me." The jailer replied " The light is indeed dim. I must get my glasses." With this, he hurried off the stage. Then the jailer returned a few moments later with a pair of glasses and the usual copy of the letter which he proceeded to read to the aristocrat.

Q1. A. Read this text carefully then answer (5) of the questions that follow. (10 M.)

Fareed was the son of a farmer. His father's farm was poor, and Fareed worked on it for a long time, but then his father died. Fareed said " I needn't stay there now. I'll sell this farm and buy one in a better place. Then I'll soon be rich." He bought a farm in the north of the country, but then his new neighbours said to him, " The weather's often very bad here. The wind's very strong, and it breaks windows and doors. You must build a room under the ground, and then you and your family can go down there, and you'll be safe from the wind." So Fareed built a room under the ground. It was a lot of work, because the ground was hard. But after that, the weather was good for a very long time. There was no wind, and Fareed spoke angrily. He said, " Why did I listen to my neighbours? I didn't have to make that room under the ground. The wind never blows strongly here. " But then one day there was a very strong wind, and Fareed and his family had to go down into their room under the ground. They were there for a long time. Then the wind stopped, and they came up.
